

Dr. Jeff Daiter CSAM, CASAM, FASAM

Dr. Daiter graduated from the University of Western Ontario in 1991 and completed his Residency in Family and Community Medicine at the University of Toronto. Shortly thereafter, he began his career in Addiction Medicine, achieving Certification by both the Canadian and American Societies of Addiction Medicine. He currently acts as the Chief Medical Director for the Ontario Addiction Treatment Centres, a group of 25 Methadone clinics in the province. In partnership with more than 40 other physicians, the Ontario Addiction Treatment Centres offer addiction treatment for over 5,000 patients. Recently, Dr. Daiter was also appointed to the National Buprenorphine Advisory Board and in that role, assisted in developing the National Buprenorphine Core Training Program. In 2004, he was appointed a 'member at large' of the Executive of the OMA Section of Addiction Medicine. In 2006 he became a Fellow of the American Board of Addiction Medicine. He is acting Chair for CSAM 2007 Scientific meeting in Ottawa as well as Chair for CSAM's Standards Committee. He remains committed to offering comprehensive addiction treatment to those patients suffering from Substance Dependence through the province and across the country.

In addition, Dr. Daiter is a Diplomate of the American Board of Sleep Medicine, a Fellow of the American Sleep Disorders Association and Director of the York Region sleep Disorders Centre. His research interest is in the combined fields of Addiction and Sleep Disorders Medicine.
